(a) to (c) The Office of the functional head of the Marketing Division of Hindustan Fertilizer Corporation Ltd. (HFC) is located in the Company's Corporate Office at New Delhi. The Divisional Marketing Office of HFC, which caters to the marketing needs of the Company in the casterr region, is located at Calcutta.

The Regional Marketing Offices of Paradeep Phosphates Limited (PPL) at Bhubneshwar, Patna and Calcutta handle the Company's marketing operations in the eastern region. Since about 80% of the Di-Ammonium Phosphate (DAP) produced by PPL is marketed in the northern, western and southern States of the country, the Marketing Coordination Office of PPL has been located at New Delhi for effective control and coordination.

In addition to the sales functions, the Marketing Offices of HFC and PPL located at New Delhi interface with various agencies, including the Departments/ Ministeries of the Government, to ensure effective supply and distribution of fertilizers.

The marketing set-ups of the public sector undertaking in the fertilizer sector are structured in accordance with their marketing needs. There is no proposal to relocate the New Delhi based marketing office of HFC and PPL.
